

Job Role: Buddy/ Support Worker
Hours: Full and part time working across a rolling shift pattern including weekends and sleep-in nights
Salary: £17,500.00 per annum (or pro rata for part time)
Location: Surrey area

Are you interested in supporting young people to reach their potential?
Or are you an experienced support worker seeking a new opportunity? Either way, we want to hear from you!

halow, is a vibrant organisation that provides various opportunities and support services for young people learning disabilities to access social activities and lead independent, fulfilling lives.

Our Buddy and Supported Living Service, which provides personalised support to our young people, within their own home environment (which is generally shared accommodation that is run by halow) and also out in the community as they develop and maintain life skills to enable them to be as independent as possible.

What does a Buddy typically do?

As a Buddy to our young people, you would provide personalised support including:

- Developing an understanding of the young person's personal needs and building a rapport with them
- Supporting the young person to take part in everyday activities or physical tasks around the home such as such as cooking, grocery shopping or cleaning and managing their home
- Support the young person to access their local community, learning and social activities, travel training and money handling
- Providing personal care to some of our young people including assisting them with washing, feeding or dressing as detailed on their support assessment
- Keeping good records about their activities and support as required

What type of person makes a great Buddy?

A great Buddy is someone who is passionate about supporting and encouraging people with learning disabilities to make positive choices. Our Buddies should also be outgoing and positive with excellent communication skills and a caring, patient nature.

At halow, we will consider applications from anyone who demonstrates a genuine desire to access the training available and gain experience working within a charitable organisation and to work with young people with a learning disability. Although experience of working within a similar environment would be advantageous it isn't essential as full training will be provided.

If you would like to be involved in the great work that we do, please download the attached Application Pack and follow the application process which is explained in the Covering Note.

Closing date for applications: 5.00pm on Friday, 21st June, 2019

Interviews will be taking place during the advertising period so please do not delay in submitting your application.

- There will be local travel involved in the role and we therefore encourage applications from individuals who have a driving licence and access to a vehicle.
